SENATOR CHAMBERS: And he assured you if we do lay this over until Friday, and you work out this amendment relative to negotiation and the time for commencement of negotiation, that he will support the bill. Has he given you that assurance?

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I don't think he will support the bill. I don't know. I didn't ask him.

PRESIDENT: Well the issue before the body at this point actually is..Senator Nore he had closed on his argument on the bill. And it is just to delay it until Friday and I think anything else you can certainly express it by voting. Senator Nore. The chair recognizes Senator Nore.

SENATOR NORE: I would like to ask the Senator a question. Senator Cavanaugh. Now really Senator Goodrich would like to kill the amendment and kill the bill, which is good. So why should we spin our wheels here. Is that true?

PRESIDENT: Well I think that's calling..well. The chair is. I'm going to rule that out of order... Where the issue before us now is whether we are going to debate the bill or we are going to debate the bill Friday. And that's strictly the issue before the body at this particular time. Now the question is, "Do you want to lay 653 over until Friday to debate it then, or not. Those in favor will vote aye. All those opposed will vote no. While you are voting on this issue the chair would observe that I would require 25 votes in order to bind the body in this particular action. The question is, "Do you want to debate 653 today or lay it over until Friday or whatever. All those in favor of laying it over until Friday will vote ayes, all those opposed will vote no. This is to delay 653 until Friday, only. Have you all voted? The chair is requiring 25 votes to lay 653 over until Friday. Once again the chair would ask if you have all voted. I can't hold the vote open forever. The Clerk will record. Senator Goodrich for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR GOODRICH: Call of the house.

PRESIDENT: Senator Goodrich asking for a call of the house. Clerk will clear the board. The next bell please indicate your support of a call of the house. Senator Goodrich has asked for a call of the house. Punch your button Senator Lewis. This is a motion for Call of the House. Senator Lewis are you voting no on the original issue. Stand by just a minute, will you until we get the board cleared here. Senator Goodrich has asked you to express your support of a Call of the House. Have you all voted. Clerk will record.

CLERK: 20 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The call of the house is supported. The next bell please indicate your presence. This bell is for you to indicate your presence, and we are under a Call of the House and that
